

Calls for a rethink over Charles Street proposals

PROPOSALS for the district council to spend around £1million buying the Dorchester Community Church in Acland Road and paying for it to move to Poundbury will be taken next month.

A decision has been delayed after council leader

Anthony Alford called for more information on the cost and viability of the proposals.

The church building, on the corner of the site, needs to be moved if the re-development of the remaining Charles Street car park area is to go ahead – including an extension to the Waitrose store.

The cost has been put at £700,000 to buy the church site as well as up to £205,000 in relocation costs and £25,000 for fees.

Proposals have been made to include the church building alongside the new Damers school at Poundbury. It had been hoped that by using the same contractor a cost saving could be made.

Long-standing campaigner Philip Jordan, who has criticised the district council's handling of the Charles Street redevelopment, says now might be a good time to reconsider the scheme taking into account the changes which have happened in Dorchester since the project started – including commercial developments at Poundbury and Brewery Square.

He is also critical of the plans for a two-storey car park and 65 flats within the retail scheme which are still subject to whether or not the flats are considered to be viable, judged by the developers.

"It is high time to stop seeing problems with Charles site and instead seize and celebrate its archaeological and heritage potential – potential that just before the Election, led Dorchester's 2012-13 Mayor Andy Canning to say: "Heritage is important to tourism and the life of Dorchester and we must protect what we have developed over thousands of years. It's not acceptable for this area to be ripped out just for the sake of a few shops"

Mr Jordan says that rather than seeing the Roman and earlier remains which lie under Charles Street as a problem for the development, they could be seen as an opportunity to promote visitors from home and abroad.

He suggests it would be better and cheaper to improve the existing car park, paying attention to the mature trees on the site, and to extend the Waitrose store – "rather than getting the company to rebuild anew on another part of the site, quite un-necessarily."

He suggests that Wait-

rose might even like to sponsor the excavations, including the adjacent Roman Baths which lie underneath the Woolaston Field car park and make a feature of them, as they have done in their car park by marking out the location of a henge-like monument which once stood in the area.

ROBIN Hodges runs the Pinhay House Residential Care Home with his wife of 31 years Carole.

Mr Hodges, 55, also runs the Saturday Morning Football sessions in Uplyme, encouraging youngsters to stay active and develop a passion for the beautiful game.

● WHAT'S the aim of Saturday Morning Football in Uplyme?

The aim is to encourage children and young people to come along and try football in a friendly, non-competitive environment, and to help people make friends.

● WHERE is it held?

On Uplyme playing field from 9am to 10.15am every Saturday from September to May. We play in Woodroffe Sports Hall from January to March. We started going there when the field was badly flooded and we couldn't play for several weeks. It helps to guarantee football during the wet, winter months, and the kids love the speed of 5-a-side games.

● HOW did you get involved with the Saturday Morning Football programme?

It was started about 17 years ago by Uplyme Church as a spin off from their "Friday Club" that was held in the village hall. A group of lads wanted to play football so they used to turn up for a kick-about on a Saturday morning. I got involved when my boys started wanting to play and as we attend Uplyme Church it was a natural thing to do.

● HOW is it funded?

Purely by donation. We don't charge to come along on Saturday mornings, it's a service to the community of Uplyme run by the church. The only time we ask for a small donation is when we move into Woodroffe Sports Hall for the winter, as we have to pay to hire it. The equipment is provided by the leaders and Uplyme Church. We have been very lucky in the past two years, with some generous donations from the community. People obviously see it as a blessing to the village.

● IS there an age limit for the children attending?

Well, it is aimed at 5-11 year olds, but we have children from about four years to lads of about 15 coming along. Everybody seems to get something out of it; we even have children from Chard who come along. We all warm up together and then split up into age/ability groups and play some football. Every now and again we mix everybody up and it's great to see the older lads helping and encouraging the youngsters.

● HOW has your role with the programme developed?

I started off just helping out on the odd occasion, however, as the years have gone by I took over the running of it. I have to ensure we have all the records and checks up to date, the risk assessments are done and we have first aid cover while we are playing. From being just a bunch of lads and a church leader turning up on a Saturday morning, we now have to be properly organised, although we are still the same at the core.

● WHAT gives you the motivation to get out of bed on a Saturday morning?

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

I think it's just the enthusiasm I encounter from the children that come along. They are desperate to join in and play some football. The parents often arrive all bleary eyed at 8.50am, saying that their child has been up since 6am with their football boots on asking if it's time to go yet!

We've had lots of kids go on to play for local teams, and a few that have been on the books of professional clubs. They all started with two left feet kicking a ball at Uplyme.

● WHAT do you try to instil in the children?

It's all about trying to be inclusive. It doesn't matter if you can't play or if you are blessed with great skill, being part of a group that values where you are is very important. I think the church background to the group leaders helps us to ensure we keep a "love thy neighbour" approach to what is happening. Everybody has something to offer.

● YOU also run a business in Lyme Regis?

Yes, my wife and I own and run Pinhay House Care Home. We've been there for the past 27 years. Making space to do the football and other things in a "24 hour a day" business has been challenging, but I feel we manage it quite well.

● WHAT do you do in your spare time?

I've been a member of Uplyme Church for 25 years and I lead the services there once a month. I'm on the Deanery Synod and the Diocesan synod as the churches representative for the parish and the vicar's representative on the Bestic Trust that is progressing the building of the new school in Uplyme. Last year I helped set up, and now help run Seaton Memory Café for those in the local community who need help and support. It's been going a year now,

'What is the cost of clearing up this unbelievable mess?'

A Dorchester anti-litter campaigner has complained about the litter dropped in the Borough Gardens after the weekend open-air cinema event.

Felicity McLaren, treasurer of the 'Stop the Drop' group says the gardens were left in "the most unbelievable mess" after the popular event.

She questions what visitors to the town must have thought if they were walking in the gardens on Sunday morning after the event.

"Whatever must have been the cost of clearing all this up? Did the providers of the food and drink that was available take any responsibility for what was going to happen to the containers they were selling their goods in?"

"I imagine the town council was taken by surprise at the sheer number of people attending, but it would have been good if they had provided more adequate rubbish receptacles' knowing that food was to be on sale - hopefully they will be ahead of the game next time," she said.

She points out that the cost of cleaning up is borne by all Dorchester council taxpayers.

"Wouldn't it be wonderful if all those people automatically carried their rubbish home with them? Wouldn't it be lovely if all those people could appreciate this gem which is the gardens for their beauty and tranquillity open to anyone who wants to enjoy them, and realise what effect their selfishness will have?"

■ RUBBISH left in the Borough Gardens on Sunday morning after the free open-air cinema event

Further public consultation over future of prison building

■ THE last prison consultation meeting attracted hundreds of people

A SECOND public consultation over the future of the former Dorchester Prison site is being held next week.

The initial open event attracted hundreds of people and some of those ideas have now been firmed up and presented as proposals for the town centre building.

New owners City and Country is holding the event at jail on Tuesday, June 30th between 3 and 8pm with local people able to drop in and see the proposals and talk to officials from the company.

Managing director Helen Moore said: "Having completed our initial consultation event at Dorchester prison in May, which provided local people and stakeholders with an opportunity to share their aspirations for the site with us, we have reviewed the comments we received and would like to thank everyone who took the time to fill in a feedback form.

"The response from those who attended the consultation was generally positive and we look forward to continuing to work closely with the local community ahead of submission of a planning application.

"The second phase of consultation presents an opportunity to view our initial ideas and discuss the early plans with the City and Country team."

Brave Lisa takes dive

Local mum of two, Lisa Morgan will be reaching speeds of up to 120mph this weekend when she jumps out of a plane at 10,000 feet to raise money for the MS Trust.

Lisa, who works at NHS Dorset CCG within the Long Term Conditions team, volunteered to take part in the fundraising jump having seen the opportunity advertised on the staff bulletin.

"A few years ago I did a sky dive in memory of a family member and it was one of the most amazing experiences of my life, so when I saw a similar opportunity to raise money for another good cause I leapt at the chance," she said.

"As with all long term conditions it is important to raise awareness amongst people, not only so they can recognise the symptoms in themselves, family or friends but to have more of an understanding of how the people around them can be affected. When you consider that more than 100,000 people in the UK have MS it is easy to see how it can touch the life of someone you may know.

"Most people here at work wouldn't normally associate me with doing something like this, but the support I have received both from colleagues and my friends and family has been great. My daughter has also stated on her social media page that her 'marvellous mother is jumping again'."

Lisa will be taking part in a tandem jump which means she will be harnessed to an instructor having undertaken the initial training earlier in the day.

To support Lisa visit her Just Giving Page www.virginmoneygiving.com/LisaMorgan4.

Along with a skydive Lisa has also completed an abseil for Anthony Nolan.

■ TWO grass fires alongside the rail lines between Weymouth and Dorchester brought trains to a halt on Thursday evening and caused disruption to services on Friday.

Firefighters were called to the A354 at around 6pm to reports of a fire and smoke near the railway line on the Dorchester side of the Ridgeway.

Customers were being asked to take buses or taxis between the towns on Friday as engineers worked on the power supply system which had been affected by the fire and water from fire hoses.

DACP seeks new chairman

A NEW independent chair is being sought by the Dorchester Area Community Partnership (DACP). The community organisation has brought groups and individuals together to produce a community plan and throughout the year seeks to find ways of stimulating projects which benefit those who live and work in the area.

"We are seeking an independent chair to build on the progress already made, and lead the partnership to ensure lasting benefits are secured for local communities in a time of austerity and changing policy context. This is an opportunity to play a key role in leading and shaping the local Partnership which is made up of a wide range of local organisations," said co-ordinator Pauline Trimming.

DACP is managed by a steering group whose members consist of representatives from Dorchester Town Council, West Dorset District Council, local parish councils, Dorset Police, Dorset Fire & Rescue and a variety of representatives from voluntary and community organisations.

Pauline says the new chair should be able to be inclusive and promote participation and equality of all partners; champion the work of the organisation by attending meetings of other groups and liaising with DACP's sub groups and individual members as necessary.

Chairs normally hold the post for three years and the position is likely to take up 3-4 days a month, sometimes having to attend meetings during evenings or at weekends.

The position is voluntary, however, a travel allowance for attendance at meetings can be paid.

The closing date for applications is Monday, July 13th with interviews on July 21st.

For further information and an application pack please contact - Pauline.trimming@dorsetcommunityaction.org.uk or Tel 01305 216407

Trust buys new scanner for hospital

A £600,000 CT scanner, pictured, has been bought for the County Hospital by The Dorset Health Trust, a local independent charity.

This second new scanner will enable the hospital's staff to offer a more effective service.

The new scanner is now being installed and commissioned and is due to be ready for use by the end of this month.

The Dorset Health Trust has a long association with helping the hospital to improve patient services. Next month sees the 25th anniversary of the opening of the Children's Centre at the hospital, the appeal for the £1million building and equipping cost being run by The Dorset Health Trust. Since then it has supported the hospital with a large donation to its MRI appeal, helped with refurbishment works and purchased several pieces of medical equipment. Its aim is to improve patient care in this part of Dorset and supporting its local hospital in this way has been a vital part of their work.

Dorset County Hospital chief executive Patricia Miller said: "We are extremely grateful for the very generous support of The Dorset Health Trust. This new CT scanner is state-of-the-art technology and will make a huge difference to the service we can offer our patients."

The scanner will be officially launched in the next few weeks.

Nominations invited for police awards for young people

JUST days remain to enter a new police award for young people.

The 'Dorset Police Young People Awards' allows members of the public, as well as Dorset police staff and officers, to nominate young people who have made a difference in their local community.

Anyone between 11 and 24 years of age can be nominated for an award for groups or individuals and can be for initiatives that tackle crime, community safety, using digital means to promote safety awareness or provide activities for other young people.

Nomination forms will be available from the Dorset Police website until the end of June with paper forms also available.

Successful nominees will be invited to attend the annual awards ceremony and presented with a certificate from Dorset Police as a sign of the force's recognition and appreciation of the young person's achievements.

One overall award winner will be chosen from all of the year's successful nominees, for the following categories:

- Youth Group of the Year
- Individual Young Person's Award 11-18 years
- Individual Young Adult Award 19-24 years
- Dorset PCC Youth Award for Excellence

The closing date for submissions is June 30th with the winners receiving their awards at the annual Young People Awards Ceremony on September 11th

World champion Blake looking for new sponsors

DORCHESTER'S Paul Blake is looking for new sponsors to help him reach Rio next year to compete in the Paralympic Games 2016.

The reigning 800m IPC World Champion has already been buoyed by the Olympic committee's decision to reinstate his favourite distance after it was dropped following the London 2012 games where the 25-year old won bronze. This forced him to switch to the 100m as a second event to the 400m for which he won the silver medal. Although he won gold at the IPC World Championships last year in Lyon he was resigned not to get his opportunity of running the middle distance in Brazil.

The disappointment was tinged with the fact that his main sponsor Liz Nelson sadly died last September. Local racehorse owner and breeder Liz who suffered from motor neurone disease and had to use a wheelchair decided to sponsor Blake after reading an article on him in this paper some four years ago as he was starting on his journey to success.

She said at the time: "I thought it was a fantastic story, and am full of admiration for both Paul and his family. I have met him and he is such a lovely young man. I was absolutely amazed at what he has achieved considering his condition when he was born."

"I will be sponsoring him right up to the Olympics and beyond; I believe he is a wonderful example of what can be achieved despite having a disability."

Apart from a grant from the authorities, his parents have borne the brunt of the cost, but Paul is desperate to try and reduce their commitment by bringing more sponsors on board, particularly since losing Liz's support.

He is hoping to raise £40,000 to help cover the cost of travelling including flights, competition fees and hotels, as well as clothing and equipment.

He said: "I appreciate that an awful number of people already sponsor a variety of activities and charities, whilst the major sportswear and equipment manufacturers are more interested in the top athletes where they can earn media coverage, but I would be grateful for any contributions, however small."

Stuart Broom who wrote the article that inspired Liz Nelson added: "Paul is such a dedicated athlete, and his story is amazing and shows how much people can achieve despite a disability."

Liz could see his determination and was prepared to back him way before he made a name for himself.

It would be great now if some local businesses can help someone who has put his home town on the map; even if it is the cost of a pair of trainers, or an air fare to a meeting.

"He is an inspiration to all sportsmen and women and deserves to succeed; to become a world champion is no mean feat."

Mencap looking for more volunteers

MID Dorset Mencap and Dorset Volunteer Centre has celebrated Learning Disability Week in Dorchester.

An information event, coffee morning, and table top sale which involved local volunteers with learning disabilities, was held at St Peter's Church Hall, helping to raise public awareness and change attitudes.

Carol Burgess, Regional Officer for Royal Mencap said: "There are about 1.5 million people with a learning disability in this country, yet many people have little knowledge of what it is, or means for that person and their family."

Dorchester's Mayor Robin Potter attended the event, which also launched one of his chosen charities for the year - the Community Credits Scheme which enables people who volunteer to receive a credit note which can then be exchanged for a leisure activity locally.

Said Siobhan Davis, Project Coordinator: "Anyone can volunteer and we can offer support in your voluntary role if needed. Volunteers are welcome to contact me on 01305 269214 to find out more."

Mid Dorset Mencap has a charity shop in High East Street, where people with a learning disability can gain valuable retail and customer service skills within the community.

The charity is keen to hear from anyone who would like to volunteer or help with events by leaving details at the shop, or email carol.burgess@mencap.org.uk

DORCHESTER shook off any doubts this weekend about whether it wants the annual carnival – with crowds lining the streets and a bumper turnout of floats.

So many were in the procession that the lead vehicles were back at the start before the tail-enders had left the market marshalling area.

“It’s been a great event – good for the organisers, good for those who are taking part, and good for the community as a whole” said a delighted carnival committee chairman Les Fry.

Dorchester Mayor and Mayoress Robin and Val Potter were equally delighted and stopped to applaud all of the floats and walking entries as they returned after walking the route themselves, accompanied by town crier Alstair Chisholm.

Much of the organisation was taken on this year by the town’s three Rotary Clubs. Amongst their members Chris Davies who was responsible for the procession: “I was delighted with both the number and quality of the entrants but completely bowled over by the tremendous atmosphere on Saturday afternoon,” he said.

A ‘wrap up’ meeting this week will now seek to find ways of putting the carnival on a firmer footing after Round Table pulled out of organising the event two years ago following a dramatic drop in its own numbers. The group were the lead organisation for Friday’s ‘Party in the Park’ and Four Legged Race.

Despite having less than a dozen entries a couple of weeks before the deadline the procession finally included almost forty floats and walking entries, included amongst them the Dorchester Carnival Band and Majorette troupes from throughout the area.

Veterans vehicles which had been on display throughout the day at Brewery Square were given pride of place at the head of the procession, the route returning this year to its traditional one – but starting earlier, at 5.30pm.

The overall winner and also winner of Class A was awarded to Westfield Academy with staff and pupils following the carnival theme and dressing in costumes of other countries. David Grassby, whose company sponsored the award, described their entry and “colourful and imaginative” with what he said was clearly a lot of effort.

Other group winners were the Dorchester Community Nursery School who had transformed their float into an ocean liner, Lyme Regis Majorettes and the Magna Housing Association float in the commercial section.

Runners up were the Grove Play Group, Dorchester Ballet and Dance and Weldmar who took advantage of the day to promote their midnight walk in Weymouth.

A prize of £100 was awarded for each of the four classes with an additional £150 to the overall winner.

Events leading up to the evening processions included stalls in South Street and an open air workshop from the Weapons of Sound Junk Percussion Band who then went on to join the carnival crowds with their instruments.

NEWS in brief ...

■ AN EXTRA opening day has been added to the Dorchester Age UK activity centre.

The centre, in Prince of Wales Road, will be open on Thursdays for older people to socialise, join in a range of activities and have lunch.

In order to help with the additional opening hours the centre is also appealing for more volunteers on Thursdays between 10.30am and 1.30pm.

Contact Lisa Holmes, head of care, on Dorchester (01305) 269444.

An information event is being held at Age UK, Dorchester's Rowan Cottage centre next Monday, June 29th from 10am until noon.

Information will be available about benefits, Social Care, housing options, and local services as well as the charity's own Priority Services Register.

■ A FAMILY picnic with music and other entertainment is being held in the Borough Gardens this Sunday, June 29th.

Dorchester Rotary is organising the event from 11am until 4pm featuring a barbecue, hog roast, bouncy castle, popcorn, tombola, games, a bar, face painting and music.

The free event is being put on to celebrate the £30,000 donated by the town during the year through local Rotary clubs.

■ MORETON Walled Gardens are holding an open event this weekend, Sunday June 28th from 10am - 4pm.

Tea and home-made cakes will be available during the event along with plants, gifts and bric-a-brac for sale. The farm shop will also be open. Adults £3, children free.

■ THE closure of local rail lines will feature in a talk in Dorchester this Friday, June 26th.

Dorchester's Peter Foster will be taking a 'West Country Tour' at the Dorset Room at the Colliton Club at 7.30pm. His talk will include a look at the closure of the Bridport branch line.

Star Wars collection could net thousands

A VAST collection of Star Wars memorabilia could fetch £50,000 when it goes under the hammer at Dukes in Dorchester on July 2nd.

The anonymous collector from Dorset filled several rooms with his passion for items from the Star Wars films.

In all there will be 500 lots consisting of thousands of items valued at just a few pounds each to hundreds of pounds each.

Among the star lots is a tiny 1977 Jawa figure with the original vinyl cape that could fetch £500. And a Boba Fett figure with a rare rocket launcher could go for the same amount.

Hundreds of collectable figures remain in their packaging and there are items connected with the original films right up to those from the modern cartoons.

Included in the collection are models, clothing, games, toys, books, videos and other merchandising from the George Lucas phenomenon.

The vendor said: "I have thoroughly enjoyed searching endlessly to find the many different variations of all the figures, craft and as many associated items as possible.

"The huge diversity of items has made this a monumental undertaking, and finding some of the rare

American-only items and exclusives has been a real challenge.

"Over the 15 year period in which I have been collecting I think I have been able to build as complete a collection as has ever been amassed.

"I have endeavoured to find examples in as near to mint condition as possible, and I have always sought original packaging and good condition in all the items I have purchased.

"Whilst putting together this collection I have been fortunate enough to find some real rarities including the Jawa figure with original vinyl cape and the Boba Fett figure with the rare rocket launcher attachment.

"The collection has grown to a huge size and I now think it is time to move on to other different collecting fields and I hope the items I have enjoyed owning go on to give other collectors as much pleasure as they have given me."

Said Dukes auctioneer Matthew Denney: "It is a remarkably thorough collection and there are items that will appeal to collectors at all levels of this market.

"We have sold collections of Star Wars memorabilia on a number of previous occasions and have always found a really good reception for items of this type.

■ MATTHEW Denney holding a tiny Jawa figure that could fetch £500.

"It is most unusual for such an extensive collection to come to auction and this may well represent an excellent opportunity for buyers to acquire rare items many of which are in very good condition."

The first film in the series, Star Wars, was released in 1977 and two more films followed in the original trilogy.

Murder and mayhem

LOCAL author Terry Hearing launched his latest volume 'Crime and Punishment in Dorset' at the Dorset History Centre.

The book is published by Dorset Books in association with Halsgrove Limited.

The volume, subtitled 'A thousand years of murder, mayhem and mystery' provides a long overview of Dorset's criminal past and draws upon original sources and images from the archives of Dorset History Centre and other collections across the county.

Mr Hearing, a former lecturer and magistrate, starts his survey with a look at the pre-1600 era and then ranges across a wide variety of criminal activity from piracy, treason, highway robbery, poaching, riot, to murder. In the second section of the book, he looks at the differing approaches that have been taken towards suppressing or punishing criminal activity, including imprisonment, transportation and capital punishment as well as the development of the police service.

The book is full of interesting and sometimes amusing anecdotes which complement the serious nature of the subject matter. One story relates to a train driver who abandoned his moving locomotive, was assumed to have died in an accident, but who was later found living with his sister-in-law in Surrey.

Mr Hearing served on the West Dorset Bench for 22 years. He was also chairman of the Dorset Probation Committee between 1985 and 1995 and has been a prison visitor as well as serving on a range of advisory boards.

Places still available at The Woodroffe School Sixth Form

Georgia
I stayed at Woodroffe because I know everyone and feel safe. I took part in clubs, team sports and jazz band and wanted to continue with the many extra-curricular activities here. This year I'm part of the 45 mile Ten Tors Team and run with the cross country club.

Ellie
I feel part of a big family here, there's always someone to support us from both staff and students. I look forward to school each day and am confident that I'll leave equipped to pursue my ambitions.

Curtis
I came to Woodroffe from another school and struggled to keep up with my A levels but with the help of Mrs Cropp, the 6th form librarian, I'm managing quite well. The students made me welcome and the social life is good.

Caitlin
Having previously aspired to come to Woodroffe for 6th Form, I made the decision to stay at my current school. After three days in their 6th form I knew it wasn't for me and made the decision to start at Woodroffe. I was welcomed with open arms by students and staff and quickly became involved. I sing with the choir, do lots of sport and have joined the French exchange.

The sixth form offers:

- A uniquely supportive and friendly environment
- A wide range of A-Level courses
- Excellent facilities, including a large common room and a dedicated sixth form library
- Highly skilled teaching staff
- A very low drop out rate compared to other institutions
- A fantastic range of extra-curricular activities
- Intensive support with university applications

Ofsted described the sixth form as 'a highly successful sixth form' with 'dedicated and passionate leadership', and noted that 'Students who join the sixth form from other schools are welcomed equally and settle in quickly'.

The Woodroffe School is:

- A high attaining academic institution
- A National Teaching School
- A Cultural Education Lead School
- Ofsted 'outstanding' for the quality of Teaching
- A National Maths Hub

Students join us from all over Dorset, Devon and Somerset. Students who leave us in Year 11 to join other institutions often return after a few weeks away!

Grants available for health champions

BIDS are being invited for £200,000 which could help organisations wanting to improve the physical or mental health of people across Dorset.

The Dorset Health and Wellbeing Legacy Fund is inviting applications from the fund, which has already benefitted 40 community projects with almost £500,000 since October 2014.

Applications for the current round have to be submitted by the end of July, with decisions to be made by the end of September 2015.

Projects aimed at helping vulnerable people or marginalised communities, tackling identified health inequalities and inspiring people towards a healthier lifestyle and which have a lasting legacy will be prioritised.

Dorset County Councillor, Rebecca Knox, chair of the Dorset Health and Wellbeing Board, said: "The Legacy Fund has a budget of £700,000, and so far, 40 worthy projects have been awarded almost £500,000. We are pleased to be able to provide further funding in 2015 that will help remind people of the superb 2012 Olympics and hopefully inspire them to get out there and do something.

"There are many organisations in Dorset that contribute to the health of our residents in all sorts of ways, so we encourage them to get in touch and tell us how they can make a difference. They can apply for grants up to a recommended maximum of £20,000.

This year's successful bidders include Dorset Destroyers wheelchair rugby club who will use the funding to help establish the only club of its kind in Dorset.

Chairman Nick Coombs said: "The funds will make a massive difference to the club. We already have huge demand from wheelchair users to join the club but specialist chairs are required as it can get very physical. This funding enables us to increase our stock and capacity to provide what is proving to be a life changing activity for many of our members."

Others to get help include Magdalen Farm, which will provide residential short stay places to young carers.

Giles Aspinall, Chief Executive, said: "The mental health of these children will improve through much-needed respite from caring duties - an opportunity to play and 'be children' whilst socialising with other children in similar circumstances. Their physical health will improve through learning about healthy eating,

■ MAGDALEN Farm – providing short-stays for young carers participating in physical and energetic activities, as well as having time to play outside on our 132-acre organic farm – an environment they cannot normally access owing to family circumstances."

Further information about how to make an application can be found at - www.dorsetforyou.com/legacyfund or call Dave Franks on 01305 224855 or Chris Skinner on 01305 228580 for more information.

TIC offices under threat of closure

WEST Dorset's four Tourist Information Centres could all close – to be replaced by an online inquiry service.

The centres, in Dorchester, Bridport, Lyme Regis and Sherborne are currently under review as part of a council cost-saving exercise.

One other option may include replacing some, or all, staff with volunteers.

Town councillor and town crier Alistair Chisholm has called for all of the centres to stay as they are: "The whole point about Dorchester and the other ones in West Dorset is they are very professionally run and the quality of the service you get is second to none.

"Tourism more than anything else is a service industry and a people-based industry.

"We certainly haven't reached the point yet where technology can replace the quality of service."

It is believed that £300,000 could be achieved by changing the way tourism services are provided by the district council.

West Dorset District Council leader Anthony Alford said that faced with a cut in Government funding some tough decisions would have to be taken.

A decision on the four centres is expected by January 2016. Contributions to the review process can be made at - www.dorsetforyou.com/consultation.

Thefts from vehicles

DORCHESTER Police are warning car owners to remove valuables from their vehicles – after a spate of thefts.

Recent items taken include a coat and torch from a Peugeot in Blagdon Road; small change from a VW Passat in Wishay Street, Poundbury and loose change from a Mazda in Treves Road.

A Peugeot 206 was also broken into whilst it was parked in Peverell Avenue East, Poundbury, between June 8th and 13th June.

Archaeological nominations

ENTRIES are being invited for the 2015 Dorset Archaeological Awards – but must be submitted by the end of June.

Nominations are being sought for three awards. These include any project involving the preservation or conservation of the county's heritage including excavations, publications, and surveys, reports of find, education or sponsorship.

The Ian Horsey Memorial Award is an occasional award given, at the judges' discretion, to an individual for a significant personal contribution to the archaeology of Dorset.

The Young Archaeologist's Award is for a young person still at school or college who can be nominated for an archaeological project, presentation of an archaeological or historic site, or an exceptional examination achievement.

Nominations should be sent by email to - c.j.pinder@dorsetcc.gov.uk or by post to – Hon Secretary, Dorset Archaeological Committee, Dorset County Museum, High West Street, Dorchester.

The awards will be presented at a ceremony in Wareham in October.

NEWS in brief ...

The amateur string orchestra, is now meeting at the Fordington hall on Thursday, 6 – 7.30 pm, twice a month, and is currently playing music by Handel, Holst and Elgar.

New members are invited to join the group, which has been set up with the help of Dorset Rural Music. For further details contact the conductor on 01258 881438.

■ DORCHESTER St Mary's Middle School holds its annual summer fair this Friday, June 26th from 6 to 8pm.

Stalls, a barbecue, raffle and games will feature during the event.

The world's biggest bite

FANS of the new film, Jurassic World, are being invited to the County Museum to see the enormous 150million-year-old skull bones of the Weymouth Bay Pliosaur.

They were recovered by amateur fossil collector Kevan Sheehan between 2003 and 2008, as they were washed out of a landslide in Weymouth Bay. The largest piece weighed over 80 kg, and the skull itself is a massive 2.4 metres long. Featured recently as one of National Geographic's Top 10 Biggest Beasts, the pliosaur was the 'T Rex of the ocean', an 18-metre long ferocious predator of the seas. Known as 'The World's Biggest Bite', the Weymouth Bay Pliosaur would have been capable of biting the biggest great white shark alive today clean in half.

The Dorset specimen is one of the most complete and best preserved skulls ever found.

Mounted dramatically on a specially constructed plinth that shows the jaws in an open-mouthed position, the story of the fossil is interpreted through a series of film presentations accompanied by a life-size model of the pliosaur's head.

Dr Jon Murden, museum director said: "It's amazing to see this skull up close in the museum – standing next to it you can really appreciate its enormous size, and get a feel for the terrifying predator it once was."

Volunteers needed to assist scout group

CROSSWAYS Scout Group is looking for a new chairman and treasurer as well as volunteers to join the executive committee.

This group is the support unit for the uniformed side and works with the Group Scout Leader and leader team to deliver Scouting in Crossways.

"You do not have to have any connection with the group or have a Beaver, Cub or Scout with us to be able to undertake these roles.

If you would like to know more or get involved with the UK's largest uniform youth movement please contact me to discuss further," said Group Scout Leader Andrew Brewer, who can be contacted on 01305 853125 or e mail brewera3@hotmail.com.

Volunteers are also needed to help with the village's thriving Beaver colony which meets on Tuesday evenings between 5-6.15pm. Mr Brewer says this could offer an ideal opportunity to get involved and can be used by youngsters as part of work experience of Duke of Edinburgh's Award.

Mayor chooses charity

MAYOR of Dorchester, Robin Potter has announced that his charity for the coming year is to be the Community Credits Scheme.

Working with Volunteer Centre Dorset, the project enables volunteers with learning difficulties to contribute their time and energy. In exchange for this volunteering they and their volunteer mentor each receive time credits which they can buy into an activity of their choice.

This might be learning something from another member or buying a session at their local leisure centre, football club, gym or cinema during quieter times – or even going on a ghost walk.

"Thanks to the untiring effort of the coordinator, Siobhán Davis at the Volunteer Centre, many volunteers are already on the scheme and there are many places where credits can be 'spent' though there is of course always space for more, and especially for more mentors to help volunteers contribute and enjoy the use of their credits," said Mr Potter.

"I know that the scheme will enable many people to contribute who might otherwise find barriers to their participation in society. I am especially grateful to the mentors who help, to the places where credits can be spent, especially to Siobhán for her unflagging enthusiasm and especially of course to the volunteers themselves."

The announcement about the charity choice was made at Mencap Mid Dorset's event to be held on Wednesday, June 17th at St Peter's Church Hall to celebrate Learning and Disability Week 2015.

BEAMINSTER BUSINESSES

A FEATURE DEDICATED TO SERVICES AND BUSINESSES IN BEAMINSTER

THE ANNUAL MUSIC AND ARTS BEAMINSTER FESTIVAL

The annual music and arts Beaminster Festival one of the premium Dorset events, opens on Saturday, 27th June 2015. This year is the 20th anniversary of this prestigious event and the new Festival Director, Nigel Corbett, is building on its continued success. Nigel has been keen to expand the varied music and arts performances to suit all tastes. On the opening day, Saturday, 27th June a midday concert in the beautiful St Mary's Beaminster church will feature commonwealth musician of the year Huw Wiggins, one of the most popular saxophonists of his generation, having performed at concert halls here and abroad. He is accompanied by James Sherlock pianist and conductor, who last year made his Carnegie Hall debut. Later that day from 5pm to 9pm the whole of Beaminster Square will be turned into a huge party for everyone with live entertainment and music filled with tables, chairs and lots of different food stalls.

The 15th century St Mary's Church, Beaminster provides the wonderful space for the classical music events, consisting of light classical concerts at 12 noon, then a literary talk at 2.30pm. One of the speakers this year is Dickie Arbiter, former press secretary to the Queen talking about his book "On duty with the Queen". The evening classical concerts are at 7.30pm. The opening classical concert on Sunday, 28th June is The Tippett Quartet who have performed at the BBC Proms and numerous festivals in the UK and abroad. On 30th June the Choralia Choir from Wells Cathedral School will provide a magnificent sound with a repertoire from secular work, an inspiring uplifting and entertaining 24 voice ensemble. The 1st July features Martin James Bartlett, BBC young musician of the year 2014. The feature evening concert on Thursday 2nd July is the worldwide acclaimed British cellist Steven Isserlis who has performed at the BBC Proms and concert halls worldwide. He is accompanied by Tom Poster, a pianist of huge repute. Saturday, 4th July at 12 noon is the Exeter Recorder Orchestra, whose members come from all over the West Country. For the final day, Sunday 5th July, at the President's Concert, there is the Devon Baroque Orchestra and Choir with a wonderful varied selection of music starting at 7.30pm.

There is the biannual visual arts exhibition at the Public Hall transformed into a gallery of wonderful works of art from paintings and sculpture to ceramics and textiles, all from artists who live in and around West Dorset. Fancy That Cake Company

HEATHER Upham's creative talents at Fancy That Cake Company take cake-making beyond the everyday and into the realms of sculpted works of art. The opening of her new shop in November 2012 at 10, Fleet Street, Beaminster took her aspirations up a gear with a dedicated kitchen and retail space for displaying cakes and selling cake decorating sundries.

Her professionalism has been recognised with ten awards - five silvers and seven bronzes - from Cake International's showcase exhibitions in London and Birmingham and other awards from the British Sugarcraft Guild.

The increase in business and the popularity of her amazing cakes is such that Heather is taking on a new member of staff, a keen young apprentice, to learn the skills of cakecraft.

Heather's fast growing customer base is hungry for her skills in wedding cakes - traditional or quirky - and 3-D birthday, anniversary or celebration cakes, whether plain or elaborate. The number of 'Likes' on the 'Fancy That' Facebook page is testament to the growing band of admirers and satisfied customers, many of whom come back for more!

Have a look at her webpage at www.facebook.com/fancythat66 for a taste of what others have enjoyed!

Fancy That Cake Company is happy to rise to the challenge of any customer's designs so please feel free to pop in to discuss any ideas or cake designs you have. Various cake classes are also being offered to budding 'cakers'. Please phone 01308-862242 for more information.

Wind farm on business community's agenda

A DISCUSSION on progress for the proposed Navitas Bay wind farm off the Dorset coast will be held at a meeting of Weymouth and Portland Chamber of Commerce on July 7th.

The breakfast event at The Rendezvous near Town Bridge starts at 8am and will feature a talk by Ian Cambrook of Navitas Bay entitled Power Supply – Navitas Bay. The Government is expected to reach a decision on the wind farm by September 11th.

The breakfast will hear that MHI Vestas Offshore Wind (MHI Vestas) has been selected by Navitas Bay as the preferred turbine supplier for the proposed offshore wind farm off the Dorset, Hampshire and Isle of Wight coasts. The turbines' 80m long blades will be made in MHI Vestas' factory in Newport on the Isle of Wight, supporting the 200 local jobs currently being created there.

MHI Vestas will supply its latest V164-8MW wind turbine. The efficiency and power of these turbines means fewer are required than would have been the case with other, less-powerful turbines. The maximum number of turbines would therefore fall from 194 to 121 for the 970MW project and reduce from 105 to 78 for the smaller 630MW option.

It marks the first major step in the procurement process for the wind farm. Further announcements will enable other suppliers in the region to compete to supply the project. MHI Vestas will now be involved in the negotiations to select the wind farm's operations and maintenance base from a short list of Poole, Portland and Yarmouth.

Navitas project director Mike Unsworth said: "We are determined to maximise the economic benefits of the project across the South Coast. Having suppliers close to the proposed site will also cut down on transport and builds local expertise, which will benefit the project and the region."

Chamber president Michelle Hind said now was the time to invest in Weymouth and Portland and Navitas Bay was a regional business opportunity, with Portland in the running to provide maintenance support to the project.

Those interested in attending should register at www.wpchamber.co.uk. The event is open to members and non members. Non-members are asked to pay £6 for breakfast. Please contact info@wpchamber.co.uk for more information.

Sound move for society

SIXTY people have been entertained by classical music pianists Duncan Honeybourne and Katherine Lam during a fundraiser for the Thomas Fowell Buxton Society.

The duo played selections of music by Schubert, Faure, Moreran and Rachmaninov at St Mary's Church in Weymouth.

The event was attended by the society's honorary president, Weymouth and Portland Mayor councillor Christine James, and her consort Trisha Chorley.

James Buxton, a descendent of Sir Thomas Fowell Buxton, thanked Duncan Honeybourne and Katherine Lam for their flawless performance and spearheaded the raffle for the evening.

Fundraising for the monument to be erected at Bincleaves Green in honour of Thomas Fowell Buxton reached more than £840 from the evening. Announcements were also made for other events to come. For details access the society website on www.thomasfowellbuxton.org.uk.

The society was founded in 2010 by people in Weymouth to celebrate the achievements of one of its most illustrious MPs, Sir Thomas Fowell Buxton.

He served as MP for Weymouth and Melcombe Regis and led the drive for the abolition of slavery in collaboration with William Wilberforce.

He also made significant prison reforms.

Intruder threatens resident with knife

A PORTLAND householder was threatened with a knife when he returned home to find an intruder in the building.

Detectives say the aggravated burglary took place in Beel Close at 5.30pm on June 13th.

Officers are appealing for witnesses. They say the offender threatened the victim with a knife and demanded money before leaving the scene towards the Royal Navy cemetery. The victim was uninjured, but a small amount of jewellery was stolen. No arrests have been made.

The offender has been described as white, aged in his early 20s, six feet tall and of slim build. He had a pointed nose and a pale complexion. He was wearing a black hooded top with the hood up and light coloured trousers. His mouth was concealed by a black scarf.

Detective Constable Simon Beare, of Weymouth CID, said: "I am appealing to anyone who saw a man matching the description in the area of Beel Close at around 5.30pm on Saturday evening to please call me urgently."

Anyone with information should call Dorset Police on 101 quoting incident number 13:292.

Maumbury Care & Nursing Home "we believe in good care"

Maumbury Care & Nursing Home has just undergone a £1/2 million refurbishment and now has 37 bed places offering a happy and relaxing 5-star environment that provides peace of mind, security, personalised care, support and stimulation.

Maumbury Care & Nursing Home, being managed by Agincare, supports the "believe in good care" campaign to remind existing and prospective staff, clients, carers and partner organisations just what good social care provision means to the lives of those who receive it.

All good care homes are built on the foundation of the team of care staff and nurses, and Maumbury is no exception. With a highly experienced team of dedicated staff and nurses this spacious home has lovely communal lounges, dining areas and a varied activity programme; ultimately offering high quality care at a fair price.

The recently refurbished rooms are now available for viewing so don't miss out. Appointments aren't essential, although you may get more dedicated attention if we are expecting you.

Alternatively please visit our website. www.agincare-homes.co.uk

"I just wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude for all the care and kindness shown to my mother whilst she was in your care and I would have no hesitation recommending Maumbury to families looking to place their loved ones in care."

Stress can ruin your life

AND the worst of it is, the more stressed you feel the harder it is to do anything about it. So you get more stressed. So it affects your health, which makes everything even more difficult and adds more worries.

If you get too stressed, you can end up wearing yourself out. Feeling worse and worse... And helpless to break free.

Your mind is amazingly good at dealing with things for you automatically. It helps you keep going even in bad times. But sometimes it needs a bit of help.

Hypnotherapy can help.

Hypnotherapy can help in so many ways. To clear tensions and anxieties. To help you deal with things differently. To restore confidence and well-being. To boost your sense of self worth. And much much more.

Susan Gale, of the Beltain Centre in Dorchester, can use hypnotherapy and her years of experience to help you.

She has a very down to earth approach and always tailors the therapy to the person.

Susan has been working as a hypnotherapist since 1989 and has helped many people. Take a look at her website www.beltain.co.uk or phone 01305 267069 to see how she could help you.

New dedicated home birth team at county hospital

A GROUP of five midwives at Dorset County Hospital have come together as a new team dedicated to supporting home births.

The Cygnet Home Birth Team - made up of Tara Putt, who is leading the service, Ali Fuszard, Ali Salmon, Karen Myers and Andrea Chrustawczuk - launched the new scheme at Abbotsbury Swannery last week.

The service will provide all the care needed before the birth, during labour and afterwards for women in their own homes and is available to women living in the hospital's catchment area who have been assessed as low risk.

Home births have previously been available at Dorset County Hospital, but the new scheme ensures women who want to have a home birth will know who will provide the care, rather than the midwives operating on an on-call basis.

Tara said: "We now have a dedicated team of experienced midwives to look after women who chose to have a home birth.

"Proven statistics show it is safer for low risk mothers to give birth at home as they are less likely to have complications.

"We have always offered home birthing but now this dedicated team will give continuity, the mother will meet all of us and will know who is coming out when they give birth.

"It is amazing, we have been thinking about it for a while now and we hope to improve home birth rates, which are currently at two per cent, and we would like to see them at 10 per cent.

"If we manage to do that, it will be amazing."

Jo Hartley, head of midwifery at Dorset County

MEMBERS of the new Cygnet Home Birth Team with local parents who had a homebirth (left to right) Stephanie Tipler with two and a half week old Vincent, Tara Putt, Rebecca Sitch with nine-month-old Joseph, Jo Hartley, head of midwifery at Dorset County Hospital, Ali Fuszard, Andrea Chrustawczuk and Ali Salmon.

Hospital, commented: "I thought about doing it and at the same time Poole Hospital started it and Tara came to me with the idea.

"It was always something I wanted to do and Tara's enthusiasm has really started it.

"To have midwives of this quality in the team is great and we really couldn't do it without them and their understanding of safety and care.

"I think it is an absolutely wonderful idea and, in times of austerity and NHS issues, to launch the initiative is great.

"I am really proud to be associated with midwives of this quality and if I wasn't a midwife I would want to be part of a home birthing team."

HOSPITAL staff with head of fundraising Andrew House

A SPONSORED 'Walk for Wards' event is taking place in Weymouth on Sunday, July 5th to raise funds for the County Hospital.

All ages are welcome to join the 5k walk around Lodmoor Country Park and RSPB Nature Reserve. The walk will start at 10am, with the welcome desk open from 9.15am. The route is suitable for all ages, and is accessible for wheelchair users and pushchairs. Children under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a responsible adult. Dogs are welcome but must be kept on a lead at all times.

All walkers will receive an event t-shirt prior to the walk, and a medal on completion of the route.

There is no registration fee for the event; participants are simply asked to raise a minimum £15 sponsorship.

Andrew House, head of fundraising, said: "This is a wonderful opportunity to join with family and friends, and raise funds for Dorset County Hospital. Participants can choose to donate to range of medical areas at DCH, or can direct the charity to use the money where it is most needed in the hospital. All funds raised will be used to help improve services and enhance patient comfort at the hospital".

Full details of the event and the registration form are available at www.dchft.nhs.uk and from the fundraising office on 01305 253470 or fundraising@dchft.nhs.uk. Registration closes on June 30th.

With almost 100 cheeses in stock from which to choose, Town Mill Cheesemonger is a favourite source for bespoke wedding cheeses for couples from across the country.

Since the Cheesemonger opened in June 2009, they have supplied hundreds of couples with cheese that has helped make their day truly special. Ranging from simple 3 cheese pyramids to a 13 tier colossus! They can courier cheese to any UK location, ensuring that your "cake" arrives on time and in top condition. The Cheesemonger has designed a clever platform to stop soft cheeses from being squashed by those above it - and supplies tasting and dietary guidance information.

The "cake" can be dressed to match the design for the party - and if there's any left over after the meal, it's a perfect late night nibble for dancers and departing guests.

Last year the shop was crowned as UK Cheesemonger of the Year, so you can be sure that you are getting the very best cheeses and service. It's no wonder that their "cakes" prove so popular. Contact Justin Tunstall on 01297 442626 to make an appointment to taste some cheeses and decide on your perfect creation.

Say 'I do' to budget bridal style

By Katie Wright, Press Association

The average wedding now costs a whopping £20,000, according to Time Out magazine. That's a £6,000 rise over the last 10 years - and, furthermore, a survey by Brides magazine revealed the average spend on a wedding dress alone is £1,340. But what if your budget doesn't stretch to those great heights, or you simply don't want to spend a fortune on a dress you'll wear once? Thankfully, the high street's bridal-wear selections are better than ever, offering serious style AND value for money.

If you're looking for something fairly traditional - that is, a dress that's pale and falls past the knee - but don't want to uphold the tradition of breaking the bank in the process, these are your best bridal bets...

Bridal Budget: Under £400

Popular with celebs Stateside, occasionwear designer Adrianna Papell also has a glamorous bridalwear range that's stocked at John Lewis. Even the most detailed gowns, embellished with diamante or crafted from oodles of ivory chiffon, don't go higher than the £400 mark with some well under that, making Papell your go-to if you're looking for a dramatic dress at a cool price.

Likewise, frock specialist Damsel In A Dress this season carries a trio of floor-length bridal gowns that will hold their own against even the most striking backdrop.

Bridal Budget: Under £300

Ghost has a selection of 11 satin dresses in beautiful, vintage-inspired shapes that can be dyed to order in four weeks, with prices ranging from £195 (for slightly shorter styles) to £275 (for long-sleeved and floor-skimming styles). Of the dye options, the Ivory, Oyster and Silver Lake shades fit on the traditional wedding colour wheel, and there's a style to suit every body shape.

For something a little more relaxed, the Brigitte Bardot collection at La Redoute has a couple of dresses that boho brides will love.

The strapless bustier dress, with its gorgeous gathered front and long, dipped-hem train is enough to make anyone want to elope to the Caribbean for a barefoot beach wedding.

Bridal Budget: Under £200

They don't actually come with the bridal prefix, but Coast's host of long, white dresses are more than altar-appropriate.

From the full-skirted floral Lucianna to the lace-topped Lori Lee, these dresses are unfailingly feminine, but they'll still leave you with change from £200.

Similarly, ASOS is packed with wedding-worthy gowns from brands like Jarlo, Fame and Partner and Forever Unique, as well as the site's own bridal line.

With a younger customer in mind, some are a little on the skimpy side, but if you filter your search results by style (maxi dress) and colour (white or cream), you'll find lots of wearable options.

Bridal Budget: Under £100

Even supermarkets have got in on the 'I do' action, with Tesco this year stocking an £80 wedding gown. Floor-skimming and lace-covered with sweet cap sleeves, it's a bridal bargain that's not to be sniffed at. BHS offers more choice with more than a dozen wedding dresses this season, and shorter styles will set you back around £95.

But the best bang for your buck can be found online at sites like Little-Mistress.com, where nude and cream maxi dresses with floral applique details are soft and pretty (without being prissy), and all fall well below the £100 mark.

Get The Look

Wedding hats. As much as we love them, they're generally all very similar, and you don't get much use out of them the rest of the year, do you? Enter Yosuzi, the Venezuelan milliner new to the team at upscale retailer Salt. As seen on the glamorous guests at the latest Salt store opening, these sleek straw hats are formal enough for weddings, but not so feather and flower-covered that you can't wear them all summer long.

Traffic collisions workshop

A WORKSHOP looking at reducing the impact of traffic collisions in Dorset is being held in Dorchester in July.

The event is being organised, on July 22nd, by the Dorset Health and Wellbeing Board with the backing of Dorset County Council, Dorset Police, Dorset Fire and Rescue Service, and Public Health Dorset.

The purpose is to gather views and feedback from a range of stakeholders on reducing accidents and supporting victims, looking at whether prevention measures make a difference and how they could be improved – as well as making best use of the resources available.

The information will contribute to a report on reducing the harms from road traffic collisions which will be presented to the Health and Wellbeing Board in September.

History talk

TED Udall, secretary of the Somerset and Dorset Family History Society, will be giving a talk to Family History group at Crossways Library next Thursday (July 2nd).

The meeting, at 7.30pm, will be open to everyone with a small entry charge to cover costs.

Please contact Tricia on Dorchester (01305) 854129 for more details about the talk or becoming a member.

■ PRINCE Charles examining the Iron Age hut at The Prince of Wales School with the Lord Lieutenant of Dorset Angus Campbell and headteacher Peter Farrington. The building was attacked by vandals over the weekend

Vandals target 'iron-age' hut

VANDALS have badly damaged an Iron Age-style roundhouse at The Prince of Wales School.

The hut, constructed by pupils at the school, was visited by Prince Charles in November during one of his regular visits to Dorchester.

Police in the county town are appealing for information about who might be behind the incident and have said they will increase patrols in the Maiden Castle Road and Castle Park area as a result of the vandalism.

The attack was discovered on Monday morning.

In a statement Dorchester Police said: "We were saddened to attend The Prince of Wales School earlier today following a report of damage caused to the roundhouse over the weekend.

"The thatched roof has been pulled off and there were signs of graffiti on the wooden doors and on a nearby poster. Given the style of the writing it would appear to be the work of youths.

"These projects are created by the school for the benefit of the pupils and local community often using the spare time and goodwill of others to achieve this. It is a shame when a few thoughtless individuals decide to cause damage.

"More importantly, trespassing on school grounds and causing such damage are both criminal offences.

"We will be conducting extra patrols in the area and carrying out random checks and anybody caught will be dealt with robustly."

Anyone with any information is being asked to contact Dorset Police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously.

Anyone for tea?

A DORCHESTER Tea Party has raised £300 for Marie Curie.

The afternoon was well supported, with the new Mayor and Mayoress of Dorchester, Robin and Val Potter attending.

Members and friends of the Dorchester and District Fundraising Group for Marie Curie baked the delicious cakes, served the teas and welcomed visitors during the afternoon. This helped to bring the total raised in the first six months of the group's existence to over £8,000.

The charity currently has 88 nurses working for it in Dorset, so require a great deal of fundraising locally, with average costs working out at £20 an hour.

The Dorchester Tea Party was organised by Kym Glover, who is the secretary of the Dorchester and District Fundraising Group. She is front second left in the picture.

■ A PIMMS and Cream Tea event at the Joseph Weld Hospice raised over £700 for the Trust which runs the service. The event was held in the hospice grounds off Herrington Road, Dorchester. Over 80 cream teas were made by staff and volunteers during the afternoon.

ARMED FORCES DAY

Saturday 27 June 2015

A chance to show your support and #SaluteOurForces for all they do

10% of revenue made from this feature will be donated to the local Royal British Legion

National Armed Forces Day 2015

What?

Armed Forces Day is a chance to show your support for the men and women who make up the Armed Forces community: from currently serving troops to Service families, veterans and cadets. There are many ways for people, communities and organisations across the country to show their support and get involved, from attending an event or joining us online to throwing a party or local event.

When?

Armed Forces Day takes place on Saturday 27 June.

Armed Forces Day celebrations begin on Monday 22 June when the Armed Forces Day flag is raised on buildings and famous landmarks around the country.

Reserves Day on Wednesday 24 June will provide an opportunity for the country to recognise our Reserve Forces.

Where?

The National Event will be held in Guildford and local events will be taking place across the country.

Why?

Showing support for the Armed Forces provides a much valued morale boost for the troops and their families. You can find out more about what they are doing at home and around the world by visiting the official sites of the Royal Navy, British Army and Royal Air Force. The public show their support for the Armed Forces on Armed Forces Day, but did you know the Armed Forces Covenant outlines how the Government, businesses and communities support Armed Forces personnel past and present throughout the year?

Who?

The Armed Forces
The UK Armed Forces defend the UK and its interests. They are busy working around the world, promoting peace, delivering aid, tackling drug smugglers, providing security and fighting terrorism.

Veterans

A veteran is anyone who has served in the HM Armed Forces at any time (including National Servicemen, Regulars and Reserves). Armed Forces Day celebrates their continued role within the military community.

You can find out more information about support for Veterans on the Veterans-UK website or by calling Veterans UK on 0808 1914 218.

Reservists

Reservists give up their spare time to serve in the Reserve Forces, balancing their civilian life with a military career to ensure that should their country require them, they would be ready to serve.

An annual Reserves Day celebrates their contribution to the Armed Forces and this year takes place on Wednesday 24 June.

Cadets

The Cadet Forces (Sea Cadets, Army Cadets, Air Cadets and the Combined Cadet Force) currently support over 130,000 young people in more than 3,000 locations across the UK. Cadets learn life and career building skills as well as gaining vocational qualifications.

Families

Our Armed Forces couldn't do their job without the incredible support of their family and friends.

Charities

Although Armed Forces Day is not a charitable event, the Armed Forces have the support of several UK charities and many local events will offer opportunities to support them. To find out more about Armed Forces charities please see www.gov.uk/donations-to-support-members-of-the-armed-forces

Thank you to all participating advertisers for your support

The Royal British Legion

Who We Are

The Legion is a big family - all supporting the Armed Forces community.

- We are a benevolent charity giving help to those most in need;
- A membership organisation providing support to 360,000 members;
- A campaigning organisation challenging those in authority;
- A fundraising organisation reliant on a huge network of volunteers;
- The nation's custodian of Remembrance

Members

Members of the Legion care about the lives of the Armed Forces family, past, present and future.

Our members don't all have a Service background but they do share comradeship and common goals. They add strength to the impact of our campaigning work; shape the way the charity itself evolves; enjoy concessions, social and sports events; give time to help our beneficiaries and fundraise for the Poppy Appeal.

Volunteers

Volunteers are the lifeblood of the Legion. There are lots of ways people help as a volunteer, depending on their circumstances.

Some volunteer throughout the year or just during the Poppy Appeal. Some work with our fundraising teams either on their own event or with their company, group, cadet unit, university or regiment. Other volunteers help our welfare teams, delivering the vital support we provide to the Armed Forces family.

Throughout the UK

The Royal British Legion provides support to all members of the British Armed Forces past and present, and their families via with offices throughout England, Wales, Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland and in partnership with PoppyScotland. We also have an extensive network of branches throughout the UK and overseas.

Pulman's girls pampered from head to toe!

MYSELF and a few of the other Pulman's View girls were lucky enough to exchange a usual day in the office for a luxury spa break at Cranberries Hideaway in Kilmington last week.

Although we tried to convince our colleagues this was no "jolly" and was "strictly for work purposes only", it was hard to even believe ourselves as we sank into the relaxing bubbles of the hot tub, sipped on Prosecco and let the stresses of work fade away with our spa treatments.

I had never been to Cranberries before but had heard lots of good reports from friends and family, and I was not disappointed as we pulled into the renovated 18th century dairy farm and soaked in the stunning views of the rolling East Devon countryside.

Set in over 100 acres of private land, owner Steve Little and general manager Verity Charles have renovated the stone barns at Cranberries to create self-catering and bed and breakfast accommodation of the highest standards, as well as a wedding venue with unrivalled views of the area and luxury honeymoon suite.

Steve and Verity greeted us with a warm welcome before giving us a tour of the site, and we were spoilt for choice when it came to picking our rooms for that night, each beautifully decorated with comfy beds, modern en suite bathrooms and some even with their own free-standing bathtubs in the bedrooms.

To top it off, Cranberries has recently opened its Hideaway Spa offering a wide range of treatments using high quality brands, including Elemis, the leading British spa and skincare brand; Crystal Clear skin rejuvenation technology; Jane Iredale mineral makeup; St Tropez tan-

"I don't often go to spas and felt a little self-conscious but Jessica and her team put me completely at ease; they were so professional and enthusiastic."

ning products and OPI hand and foot treatments.

As well as favourite spa and beauty treatments, the Hideaway Spa includes a jacuzzi bath and steam showers for individual use and will soon be branching out into more specialist treatments, such as laser hair and tattoo removal.

Spa manager Jessica and her team showed real enthusiasm for their work and spoke passionately about the products used. Their professionalism, expertise and the relaxing atmosphere put us completely at ease.

In the morning, we were each treated to a stress-busting back massage and a refreshing facial using the delightfully-fragranced Elemis range and, after tucking into a delicious buffet lunch and one (or two!) more glasses of Prosecco, it was back to the spa for manicures and pedicures leaving us completely pampered from head to toe.

After all that hard work it was time to chill out in one of Cranberries' many hot tubs and time seemed to slip away as we looked out over the surrounding countryside – a view you just cannot get bored of. Eventually we pulled ourselves away for dinner before a peaceful night's sleep.

The hot tubs are a favourite feature for visiting hen parties, which have quickly become a specialty of Cranberries thanks to the flexible range of special activities on offer, meaning each party can be tailored to suit every type of "hen".

The rural getaway – with accommodation ranging from rooms for individuals, couples or families up to renovated barns sleeping 16 – has also become a popular destination for larger corporate parties and, of course, is now one of the favourite wedding venues of the area.

And Cranberries' success is surely only set to soar further as renovation continues with plans to further expand the spa facilities and open a restaurant with hearty, homemade meals as its staple.

So if you're looking for a quick beauty fix or a head to toe makeover, there can be few finer settings for a relaxing day out than Cranberries Luxury Hideaway.

Comedy trio at the Palace

THREE comedians, fresh from the Edinburgh Fringe, will be at the Bridport Electric Palace Comedy Network on Friday, June 26th.

They are Paul McCaffrey, Ray Peacock and Glenn Moore.

Paul McCaffrey is a stand-up comedian and comic actor who can be seen in two series of the BBC3 prank show, Impractical Jokers, starring alongside Roisin Conaty, Joel Dommett and Marek Larwood.

As a stand-up, Paul quickly established himself on the circuit with his incredibly likeable, 'everyman' persona, winning both The London Paper and the Latitude Festival new act competitions. Paul will be taking his fourth solo stand up show, Paul or Nothing, to the Edinburgh Festival in 2014.

Paul has filmed the stand-up spot on Russell Howard's Good News (BBC3) and is a regular guest on Extra Time (talkSPORT). He has also done studio warm-up for The Morgana Show (Channel 4) and That Sunday Night Show (ITV 1) and can currently be seen at some of the best comedy clubs in the country.

Ray Peacock has established himself as one of the most popular compères, headline performers and TV warm-up acts on the circuit, with Chortle Award Nominations in the best compere and best internet show categories.

It was as part of the highly successful Big And Daft comedy trio that Ray first came to prominence, enjoying a BBC London radio series, three consecutive years of sell-out Edinburgh Festival shows and their own series for the BBC's Play UK, Terrorville.

As a highly sought after warm up act, amongst many other shows, Ray has provided regular warm up for Russell Howard's Good News, Red Dwarf, Not Going Out, That Sunday Night Show, Miranda, The IT Crowd, Friday Night With Jonathan Ross, The Graham Norton Show, French & Saunders, Lee Mack's All Stars and Al Murray's Compete for the Meat.

In 2014, Ray appeared in his solo show Here Comes Trouble at Edinburgh Fringe.

Within his first 10 gigs, Glenn Moore was a finalist in So You Think You're Funny? and a runner-up in the Chortle Student Comedy Awards. Since then, he's gone on to regularly perform across the UK, for the likes of Jongleurs, Off The Kerb and Komedica. At the 2014 Edinburgh Fringe, he was part of the prestigious AAA Stand-Up Late showcase show.

Glenn is also one half of the critically-acclaimed sketch comedy duo Thunderbirds, who had a sell-out run at the Edinburgh Fringe in 2014, as well as a show at the Fringe the previous year voted one of GQ's Top Ten Funniest Shows at the Fringe.

Outside of comedy, Glenn is a newsreader for radio stations across the country, including Capital FM, Classic FM, XFM, Heart, Smooth, Sky News Radio and LBC. He also regularly appears on London Live's Evening News, and the Evening Show.

The Comedy Network night at Bridport's Electric Palace on Friday, June 26th starts at 8.15pm (doors open 7.15pm).

Tickets cost £10 +50p booking fee, or £12 on door. Tickets are available through the Electric Palace Box Office, Bridport TIC on 01308 424901 or online via SeeTickets.

Two orchestras combine forces

IT SAYS much for the lively arts scene in Bridport that it has produced not one, but two chamber orchestras. For many years the Allington Strings and Bridport Chamber Orchestra have been running side by side, and now they even share a conductor in Arturo Serna. The orchestras are joining forces for a concert on Saturday, July 4th in St Mary's Church in Bridport. The programme includes music to appeal to all tastes; Pachelbel's famous Canon and Gigue and Bach's Art of Fugue, Mozart's glorious Clarinet Concerto, Sibelius' romantic Andante Festivo and music from Latin America by Aldemaro Romero.

After the original soloist for the Mozart concerto had to pull out, we have been lucky enough to secure the services of Joseph Shiner, one of the best young clarinet players in the country. Joseph began studying at Wells Cathedral School, achieved a Double First Class Honours in Music at Cambridge and completed post-graduate studies at the Royal Academy. He has gone on to a busy career playing with orchestras and ensembles across the country and in the USA, has won numerous awards and made his London solo debut at St Martin in the Fields in 2013.

Tickets are £10 from the Bridport Music Centre and Book Shop and on the door and include wine and cheese; students have free entry.

Four decades later, it's still not safe to go back in the water!

YOU'RE gonna need a bigger boat! Steven Spielberg's summer classic Jaws is coming to Bridport Arts Centre on Thursday, July 23rd in honour of the blockbuster's anniversary.

Steven Spielberg's original summer hit, is celebrating 40 years of maritime terror. Based on Peter Benchley's novel of the same name, Spielberg's Jaws forever changed the cinematic landscape, setting a whole new bar for mainstream horror.

The story begins when an unusually large great white shark decides to terrorize the inhabitants of Amity Island, three unlikely heroes – a police chief, a marine scientist, and a grizzled fisherman – set out to catch it. Starring Roy Scheider, Richard Dreyfuss, and Robert Shaw.

Masterfully directed with thrilling cinematography and a truly iconic score, Jaws is best enjoyed on the big screen, if you dare!

Lisa Wilcock, Marketing Manager said:

"Jaws is the ultimate blockbuster and it's been enjoyed by generations. This is a fun opportunity to watch the jump out of your seat moments on the big screen".

The 40th Anniversary screening of Jaws takes place at Bridport Arts Centre on Thursday, July 23rd at 7.30pm. Tickets are £6, £5 members and concessions, and £4 Children, available from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204

Fabergé: A Life of its Own

BRIDPORT Arts Centre is hosting a captivating new film that tells the fascinating story behind the most prestigious name in luxury: Fabergé.

Fabergé: A Life of Its Own charts the rich history behind the iconic luxury brand, from the monumental rise of 'artist jeweller' Peter Carl Fabergé in the 19th Century to the enduring legacy of Fabergé today.

The film features unique, access to two historic new pieces – the first new creation in almost 100 years, and a recently discovered lost treasure.

The Imperial Egg, long believed to be lost until its surprise discovery by a scrap metal dealer last year, will be revealed to the public for the very first time, having already been sold privately for an estimated $30 million.

The first 'Imperial Class' Egg produced for 99 years. The Pearl Egg, commissioned to mark 100 years since the production of the last Imperial Egg for Tsar Nicolas II, will be unveiled to audiences in exquisite close-up detail. A spectacular objet d'art, it features over 3,000 diamonds and natural pearls.

The compelling history of the Fabergé brand, told by two of Peter Carl Fabergé's great-granddaughters. Tatiana Fabergé recalls the dramatic upheaval of the House of Fabergé from Russia to Europe during the Russian Revolution, whilst Sarah Fabergé introduces the modern incarnations of Fabergé's jewellery.

Experience the wonder of seeing Fabergé's exquisite objects in stunning detail on the big screen for the first time at Bridport Arts Centre on Tuesday, June 30th, 7.30pm.

Baroque supergroup at the Electric Palace

BAROQUE supergroup L'Orchestre du Mont-Plaisant bring their world rhythms to Bridport's Electric Palace on Wednesday, July 15th.

Based in London since 2011, ODMP brings together world rhythms and moody cinematic moments playing blues and dance pieces, with notable influences from Congolese soukous, African highlife, Ethiopian jazz, cumbia and a whiff of Middle-East and Turkish psychedelia.

They have recorded sessions for Cerys Matthews on Radio 6 and were featured on Fiona Talkington's Late Junction on Radio 3, Gideon Coe's Radio 6 show, Tom Ravenscroft on Radio 6 and Jo Whiley on Radio 2.

They are regulars on Resonance Fm, SOAS radio and have been featured in French music and culture magazine Gonzai.

They toured extensively throughout England, Germany, France, Italy, Slovenia, Hungary, Montenegro, Croatia, Serbia, Spain, Holland, Belgium. They shared stages with the likes of Kumbata Makoto, Hype Williams, Imperial Tiger Orchestra, The Experimental Tropic Blues Band and Talibam! among others.

They recently worked as artists in residence in Germany making music for theatre and collaborating with local musicians as part of New Hamburg Festival, commissioned by Deutsches Schauspielhaus.

Their new album Orchestre Du Mont-Plaisant II came out on May 29 on Polychrome Sounds.

L'Orchestre du Mont-Plaisant play at the Electric Palace on Wednesday, July 15th. Doors open 7pm, with music from 8pm. Tickets are £10 plus booking fee in advance, or £12 on the door. Advance tickets are available from Bridport TIC, the Electric Palace, or seetickets.com. For more details visit www.electricpalace.org.uk

The World's No.1 Michael Jackson tribute comes to Weymouth

GET READY to moonwalk the night away with the world's No.1 Michael Jackson performer! King Of Pop – The Legend Continues is currently on tour in the UK and is set to take the Weymouth Pavilion by storm when it appears there on Sunday, June 28th.

The production is led by tribute artist 'Navi' who is without question the leading and most successful Michael Jackson tribute artist on the planet. A claim that is backed up by Navi's incredible list of achievements that have been chalked up in a glittering career spanning over two decades in 57 different countries.

Navi's career highlight came in 2003 when he was invited to perform at Michael Jackson's 45th birthday party in Los Angeles. Michael not only applauded Navi but went on to give him a standing ovation and thumbs up. This was an incredible moment for Navi which was captured on film.

"To meet Michael was one thing, but to perform in front of the greatest entertainer of all time and to perform his songs was no easy feat and extremely nerve-wracking," said Navi.

Unbeknown to Navi, the 'personal' highlight of his career was to come only the following day when he was invited to visit Michael's home, Neverland - a surreal experience for the impersonator. Navi spent the day inside Neverland, visited Michael's cinema, zoo, went on a few of his theme park rides and had a barbeque on the grounds. This memory will always be one of Navi's most precious.

The relationship continued and over a period of many years Navi was frequently hand-picked by Michael to work for him in several different ways.

This included coming out of hotels as a decoy to distract waiting fans and press whilst Michael quietly slipped out the back exit. Navi was also hired for promotions of his forthcoming tours and album launches.

Since Michael's death, Navi has continued to work alongside the Michael Jackson Estate and in January 2010 he performed to a sell-out London O2 Indigo audience. The same venue where the "This Is It" concerts sadly never took place. Navi has been touring internationally ever since in his world renowned production King Of Pop – The Legend Continues.

The show also features an incredibly talented live band and dancers who assist Navi in brilliantly recreating all the magical classics from the early Jackson 5 songs to the mega-hits such as Thriller and Smooth Criminal.

For a great night of entertainment suitable for the whole family, be sure to catch Navi in King Of Pop – The Legend Continues, Sunday, June 28th at the Weymouth Pavilion, The Esplanade, Weymouth, Dorset, DT4 8ED. The show starts at 7.30pm. Tickets can be purchased through the venue box office on 01305 783225 or online at www.kingofpoptour.com.

Grab Some Sexagenarian Action With The Independent's Agony Aunt Virginia Ironside

PUT that Saga booking on hold and grab a bit of sexagenarian action with agony aunt Virginia Ironside when she presents her latest show Growing Old Disgracefully at Bridport Arts Centre.

Virginia is an agony columnist for the Independent and writes for the Oldie. She's written two books celebrating being a sexagenarian and this show does just that.

The show arose from performing at literary festivals to publicise her book, No! I Don't Want to Join a Bookclub!, but now, a few years later, her next book has come out, No! I Don't Need Reading Glasses! And she's still on the road.

Directed by Nigel Planer who played Neil in the Young Ones, this "grannie stand-up" premiered at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe three years ago, and last year (2012) she did another stint at Edinburgh to sell-out audiences. She's been touring ever since.

In this show she'll explain why unlimited free drugs, fun funerals, grandchildren and sex – or, even better, no sex – make the sixties the best (and funniest) time of your life. Come along and hear some funny personal anecdotes, heartfelt tales from her life, and share with Virginia what marvellous fun getting older is.

Virginia Ironside appears at Bridport Arts Centre this Saturday, June 27th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 or £10 from Bridport Arts Centre box office 01308 424204 or online at www.bridport-arts.com

Legendary band The Blockheads hit Dorchester for one night only

STARTING out as the band behind Ian Dury, the Blockheads are a legendary outfit that has grown in stature from the early days of the Stiff tour in 1977, right up to the present day. Backing up Ian Dury's poetic lyrics, this is the band that brought you 'Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick', 'What a Waste', 'Reasons to be Cheerful – Part 3', and 'Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll', among many others.

Rarely off the road since the demise of Ian Dury in 2000, but now with Derek Hussey fronting the band, the Blockheads are still one of the most underrated British bands of all time, with a legion of fans of all ages.

Their new album, 'Same Horse Different Jockey', was released on 23rd November 2013, which was also the 35th anniversary of the release of 'Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick', and continues to show both their diversity and supreme quality, as well as showcasing their uniqueness.

Derek Hussey's lyrics in the band's new songs keep the combination of poetry, word play, earthy humour and deadly-accurate observations of everyday, British working-class life, that Ian Dury had perfected, but with an added bite for the 21st century.

Derek 'The Draw' Hussey is known to the band's followers as Dury's best friend and minder, memorably singing with Ian and the band at a televised concert in the late 90s.

As well as through their own new material, interest in 'Sex & Drugs & Rock & Roll', the recent biopic of their erstwhile front man Ian Dury, the performance of 'Spasticus Autisticus' at the 2012 Paralympic Opening Ceremony, and the musical 'Reasons To Be Cheerful', has seen a resurgence in the band's popularity over the past couple of years and they continue to go from strength to strength.

Along with some new material you can expect to hear 'Hit Me with your Rhythm Stick', 'Wake Up And Make Love With Me', 'Reasons To Be Cheerful (Part 3)', 'What A Waste', 'Clevor Trever', 'Sweet Gene Vincent' and many more from the illustrious back catalogue.

The Blockheads are fronted by Derek 'The Draw' Hussey, and Chaz Jankel, Norman Watt-Roy, John Turnbull and Mick Gallagher still remain from the original band. The current line-up is augmented by John Roberts on drums and a rolling line up of saxophonists that includes Gilad Atzmon, Terry Edwards and Dave Lewis.

The Blockheads play at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Thursday, July 23rd at 8pm. To book tickets or for more details call box office on 01305 266 926 or visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

HOME FIT FOR A KING!

POUNDBURY on the outskirts of Dorchester provides the opportunity to live in a style if not fit for a king, then certainly approved of by Prince Charles.

The development, built on Duchy of Cornwall land, is inspired by the heir to the throne's love of traditional architecture, and is a highly desirable place to live.

Now leading property experts Greenslade Taylor Hunt are offering a three-bedroom home on the sought-after site for £1,175 per calendar month. Tenant Fees Apply; £216.00 application fee. £96.00 for each additional applicant or guarantor. £90.00 termination check out fee. £276.00 early termination fee (only with Landlords prior consent). All charges inclusive of VAT.

The superb end of terrace house at Tinten Lane is available unfurnished and is conveniently situated for local amenities. It is arranged over three floors and includes a master bedroom with ensuite shower room, two other bedrooms, family bathroom, living room, kitchen, separate dining room and cloakroom. The property also benefits from a garage and gas central heating.

The rear garden is lawned and there is a patio area with shrubs and flower borders. In addition there is a garage and hard-standing parking area.

The appealing property would suit a wide range of prospective tenants from retired people to those with families.

For more information and to arrange a viewing please contact Greenslade Taylor Hunt, 45 High West Street, Dorchester, or call (01305) 268786.

308 GTi by Peugeot Sport: The Car For Thrill-Seekers

EVER since the acclaimed PEUGEOT 308 was voted 'European Car of the Year', enthusiasts have been asking one question – when will the Brand launch a more extreme performance-oriented 'hot hatch' version following recent sportier GT Line and GT models?

Now we can welcome the 308 GTi by PEUGEOT SPORT.

Powered by a highly-efficient 1.6-litre THP Stop&Start (S&S) petrol engine and extensively developed by PEUGEOT SPORT, this latest PEUGEOT GTi is offered in two versions with 250hp and 270hp outputs both delivering impressive performance. Inspired by a rich PEUGEOT pedigree in GTi models, the 308 GTi has been developed to have a capable chassis that produces top-level road holding and driving pleasure, with fun and ultimate performance enhanced by the Torsen® limited-slip differential equipping the 270hp model.

The clean lines of the modern exterior style takes the Brand's now-familiar design language in a more assertive and contemporary direction. Inside, the PEUGEOT i-Cockpit cabin has been enhanced to reflect the sporting nature of the car, with additional detailing to signify this performance flagship.

Exhibiting exceptional dynamic prowess was the number one goal during development, but the Brand's reputation for class-leading environmental credentials has not been sacrificed. The powerplant is the most efficient in its sector, with CO2 emissions of just 139g/km and fuel economy of 47.1mpg – impressive numbers for such a capable and sports-oriented model.

A stunning and purposeful exterior

From the very beginning, PEUGEOT knew that designing the most radical model in its range, then creating a top class driving experience for a particularly demanding set of enthusiastic-driving customers was a tall order. Rising to the challenge required a development team infused with a passion for performance and the obvious solution was to challenge the experts: PEUGEOT SPORT engineers, with a wealth of international expertise in the field of motor sport and top level racing.

The visual enhancements they have made to create the 308 GTi by PEUGEOT SPORT are obvious from every angle. Boasting exclusive styling front and rear, the car sits 11 millimetres lower to the ground than the standard 308. The nose features full LED headlamps, flanking a new black radiator grille with a horizontal chequered pattern and gloss-black finishing. The same motif is echoed on the air intake, which is surrounded by sequential LED indicators and a red detail strip (chrome on Ultimate Red cars). Below the bumper, two front spoilers boost aerodynamic performance.

In profile, the redesigned door sills hint at the car's aggressive nature, while the sleek new rear design features a gloss-black section housing the twin exhaust pipes. The GTi signature of the car is clearly visible on the front wings and tailgate.

Mercedes-Benz GLC: An SUV That Fits The Bill To Perfection

THE second generation of the mid-range SUV from Mercedes-Benz goes by the name of GLC and represents a big step forward on several fronts: On a technical level the new SUV clearly makes its mark with the excellent standard of safety that is a brand hallmark, featuring state-of-the-art assistance systems and outstanding energy efficiency. Fuel consumption has been cut by up to 19 per cent in comparison to the previous model. At the same time, the AIR BODY CONTROL multi-chamber air suspension that is without parallel in this segment, the extended range of DYNAMIC SELECT dynamic transmission modes and the 4MATIC permanent all-wheel drive increase not only the ride comfort, but also the vehicle's sporty agility – whatever surface it is driving on. Visually, the body follows the clear and sensual design idiom which was demonstrated so successfully by the GLC Coupé showcar concept in the spring, and which serves as the standard for future SUV families.

"Our new GLC represents a further, systematic step in the implementation of our successful SUV philosophy. It combines the ultimate in driving comfort with a sporty touch, impresses on the road and – more than ever – off it as well, and appeals to the eye with the new design and equipment line," says Thomas Weber, member of the Management Board of Daimler AG and responsible for Group Research and Mercedes-Benz Cars Development.

The design philosophy behind the new GLC essentially favours sensual purity and a modern aesthetic over the classic off-road look. The dynamic design exudes emotional appeal while also employing purist forms. Surfaces embodying a degree of tension and precise lines cite the clear design line followed by all state-of-the-art SUVs from Mercedes-Benz. The GLC only represents a departure from its progenitor – the G-Class – in terms of appearance, however. On a technical level it sets new benchmarks – the mid-size SUV's off-road capabilities remain as outstanding as ever.

The characteristic SUV front with a short, succinct overhang, upright, three-dimensional radiator grille with a twin louvre and centrally positioned brand star follows the successful new design line. Striking headlamps, optionally available as LED High Performance lamps, lend the GLC a self-confident look which is further emphasised by their distinctive night design. The bumpers with integrated underguard come in three variants: in addition to the base version there is a version optimised for off-road use with a larger angle of approach/departure, plus a particularly sporty AMG variant.

The side view showcases the almost coupé-like greenhouse, which together with the 118 millimetres larger wheelbase lends the GLC an elegant long profile. This impression is further reinforced by the gently sloping dropping line which is a hallmark of the brand and by the powerful shoulders. The rising lower feature line also enlivens the vehicle's side view. Matt black cladding in the wings, wheels up to a size of 50.8 cm (20 inches) and the optional side running board provide clear indications of the GLC's off-road credentials.

Weymouth Rowing Club

WEYMOUTH Rowing Club came within a point of winning the Swanage Regatta following a series of excellent results.

Although a little windy, the conditions were favourable with calm seas and warm sunshine with twelve gig clubs; Weymouth, Portland, Bridport, Lyme Regis, Swanage, Langstone, Exmouth, Torridge Clevedon, Barnstable, Teign and Poole; competing in nine events, giving all ages and all levels of competence an opportunity to race.

On the water, the competition was fierce with several near misses in the fight to maintain positions.

Weymouth continued to produce a high standard, with the gig "Tristan" finishing in the top three in every race. Tristan had well deserved success in winning the Mixed Crew race and the Men's Vets race, whilst also taking second place in the Ladies B, Men's A and Men's B races.

Together with the placings in other races, Weymouth gained second place overall but were pipped by hosts Swanage.

Weymouth members would like to thank Swanage for its hospitality and providing a good days racing.

Lions support for talented Carney

THOMAS Carney, currently ranked number one in Great Britain for under 14s in Poomsae Taekwondo, received a cheque from Weymouth & Portland Lions Club for £230 to help cover some of his expenses in pursuit of his chosen sport.

In order to compete at this level, 13-year-old Carney has to travel long distances and, unfortunately, with grants not available for under 16-year-olds, the Lions have stepped in to give him a little help so that he can concentrate on his sport.

Big win sees Bandits off to super Summer League start

Weymouth Mission Fitness Bandits 80 Southbourne 40

THE Weymouth Mission Fitness Bandits got off to a winning start in their first game of the summer league at Budmouth College when they beat visitors Southbourne.

The game began at a fast tempo; the Bandits pushing the fast break against the less experienced Southbourne side with Craig Sorrell scoring six successive points, and strong offensive rebounding from Vitoldas Balciunas.

The outlet pass was used often, and Jeff Robertshaw and Simon Dean collected easy buckets on the break. The first quarter ended with Weymouth leading 26-6.

The second quarter was used as an opportunity for the Bandits to try out different types of offensive plays and defensive formations that they had used all season, and also to give the players making their debut some experience for the coming season.

Josh Westlake and Andy Steele looked strong in the post, making drives through the lane and with Chris Canham getting steals on defence, the first half finishing with Bandits 29 points ahead.

The second half continued the high scoring as the Bandits dominated the court. Carl Carter performed well under the basket blocking shots and rebounding for the fast breaks, and Jim DeBertrand made shots from outside the key.

Balciunas was also a dominant presence in the key both on offence and defence, in his final game for the Weymouth club.

However the Southbourne side had found their accuracy and were trying to stay in the game, and so the amount of points scored in the quarter by both teams was very close 14-12.

For the remainder of the game, Weymouth switched their defence to man marking ensuring the opposition were unable to make enough points to contest the lead, with Weymouth Bandits running out 80-40 winners.

Player/coach Craig Sorrell mused after the game, "A great start to the summer league for Weymouth. This was Josh Westlake, Jamie Dixon and Jeff Robertshaw's debuts for the Bandits and they played very well."

Roster/Scorers: Craig Sorrell 17, Chris Canham 13, Jeff Robertshaw 11, Vitoldas Balciunas 10, Simon Dean 7, Carl Carter 6, Jim DeBertrand 6, Josh Westlake 6, Andy Steele 4, Jamie Dixon.

Blandford Army 49 Weymouth Bandits 59

WEYMOUTH Bandits were looking to keep up the momentum from their first home win, and hopes were high despite going into the game with just eight players whilst Blandford had a full 12 man squad.

They started strongly with Robertshaw converting multiple fast breaks and playing at a high intensity.

Whilst the Bandits offence was rolling the defence was a bit lacklustre and were allowing easy points around the basket, but they still finished the quarter 14-11 ahead.

Going into the second quarter Weymouth's offence was a lot more patient and more half-court basketball was played by using a pass and cut offence.

Using this Weymouth were able to get open for many mid-range and long range shots that Sorrell and Canham were converting.

However the defence was still lacking the intensity that would let them pull away from the Blandford team, leaving Weymouth with just a two point lead at half time.

The second half started with the Bandits focused on limiting Blandford's offence to mainly outside shots which slowed down their scoring.

Whilst the problem on defence had been solved, Weymouth also started to attack the basket more allowing Steel and Carter to get into good positions and add to the lead, leaving them eight points up at the end of the third quarter.

Fatigue in both teams, despite caused errors with a number of bad turnovers, but the Bandits continued to push on and won the game by ten points.

Roster/Scorers: Craig Sorrell 16, Jeff Robertshaw 15, Chris Canham 10, Andy Steel 9, Carl Carter 6, Jay Willson 3, Jamie Dixon

Team Dorset Badgers 77 Weymouth Bandits 73

WEYMOUTH Mission Fitness Bandits travelled to Bournemouth for the hugely anticipated encounter against the old rivals.

Team Dorset have been playing in the Solent leagues and finished their regular season with satisfactory results, whilst the Bandits ended a good first year coming third in the Exeter & District League Division One.

Bandits started slowly, adjusting their line up to account for a couple of players unable to make the fixture.

As a result Team Dorset managed a quick 7-0 run. But Coach Craig Sorrell refused to take a time out and demanded a response on court from his players.

This seemed to provoke a reaction as they hit back with a 9-0 run of their own which saw an introduction to the game from young Josh Westlake who has impressed through training, with Sorrell himself hitting several long range jump shots from the three point line.

The Badgers were quicker out the blocks at the start of the second quarter due to some uncharacteristic errors from the Bandits. But this time, with stalwart Chris Canham pushing them on, they improved with a 10-0 run with Jeff Robertshaw and Canham sharing the spoils.

This quarter saw an impressive defensive combination from Jaime Dixon and the mighty

Carl Carter who very rarely gives anything away, however both Carter and Canham were drawn into foul trouble and had to sit out the remainder of the second quarter which ended with Bandits leading 41-36.

The theme continued at the start of the third where yet again Team Dorset hit five shots without reply and started to look the better team due to a shake-up of their own personnel.

Following a time out the Bandits returned to the court confidently, none more so than Jay Wilson and Josh Westlake, who through some very nice link up play and solid rebounding made four returned baskets, resulting in veterans Canham and Sorrell scoring some promising drives through the Team Dorset defence.

The fourth quarter had the teams matching each other. Jim DeBertrand was controlling Weymouth's backline and even instigating play at the offensive end of the court.

Again Sorrell weighed in with three three pointers, taking his tally to seven, but it couldn't prevent the Badgers taking the game.

Canham said: "We felt we were the better side and it was a shame to lose the game after all of our guys pushed themselves so hard."

But even so we enjoyed it, and it showed off some great young talent coming. We'll get them when they come to us!"

Scorers: Sorrell 35, Robertshaw 13, Westlake 9, Canham 8, DeBertrand 6, Carter 2, Willson 0, Dixon 0.

Experienced Fitzgerald guides Dorch home

A MATURE half century from Sean Fitzgerald helped guide Dorchester to their second Premier Division win of the season, but there was disappointment for Weymouth who remain bottom without a win after they were dismissed by Stalbridge for just 46.

Dorset Funeral Plan League Premier Division DORCHESTER 187-7 BEAT PARLEY 186-9 BY 3 WICKETS

DORCHESTER won their just their second game of the season with a three wicket win over high flying Parley.

Chasing a challenging 188 to win, a half century from the evergreen Sean Fitzgerald and 44 from captain Simon Mitchem saw them recover from a precarious start to win with eight balls and three wickets to spare.

Parley having won the toss and deciding to bat, lost Hewetson early on to a great overhead catch by Steve Clifford off James Dunham (1-29).

But solid knocks from Cridpand (28), Alex Nipard (37), Trueman (19) and Markham (23) put them in a strong position at 148-4.

However, some tight bowling from spinners Rob Waite (2-29) and George Foot (1-34) and two late wickets from Tom Blair (2-51) and Mitchem (2-38) restricted the visitors to 187-7.

Dorchester lost Pete Phillips (11) and Steve Clifford for a duck to stand 28-2 and with Marcus Evans (7) run out on 51-3, the game looked in the balance, but a fourth wicket stand of 71 between Fitzgerald (50) and Mitchem, and a further partnership of 37 with Waite (11) put them in the box seat.

When Mitchem was trapped lbw by a ball that stayed low on 176-6 and Nick Roe went for a duck on the same score, it was left to Dan Morris (15 no) to steer them home.

Mitchem was delighted with his team's efforts saying: "It was a great win and I was really pleased with how everyone played."

"We did drop one guy three times; which I wasn't best pleased about; but luckily we didn't pay for it in the end."

"We all bowled really well, and I think what did it for us was that we only conceded 45 runs off the last ten overs; the last 15 overs we really squeezed them."

"Sean (Fitzgerald) batted very well, and I was disappointed he didn't see it through to the end."

"He's got bags of experience and got a very mature head on his shoulders, and is worth his weight in gold in the team."

On his own batting performance he said: "I'm feeling good at the moment and batting well, I was a bit unlucky to get out to a half tracker ball that just rolled."

POOLE TOWN 189-9 BEAT MARTINSTOWN 153 ALL OUT BY 22 RUNS (REDUCED TARGET 175)

MARTINSTOWN missing all rounder Liam Banfield and leading scorer Dave Herbert found their target just too much in a rain interrupted game at Poole Park.

A half century from Brewster Surridge held Poole Town's innings together on a pretty fast track with lots of bounce where the wickets were shares around between the Martinstown bowlers as Poole reached 189-9 in their allotted overs.

Heavy rain during tea saw the visitors target reduced to 175 off 42 overs, and Martinstown got off to a reasonable start as Ed Nichols and Steve Gerrity put on over 40 for the first wicket.

The loss of a few cheap wickets was boosted by a stand of 65 between Tom Nicholls and Matt Camp who smote a huge six over mid-on to leave Martinstown requiring 42 off 14 overs with six wickets in hand.

However the tail couldn't deliver and Poole knocked them over for a 22 run victory.

Skipper Nichols accepted his side had come up short on the day on what was a tricky wicket, but was disappointed that the Poole tail scored more than he would have liked.

WEYMOUTH 46 ALL OUT LOST TO STALBRIDGE 47-1 BY 9 WICKETS

WEYMOUTH'S problems continue as they were dismissed by Stalbridge for just 46 at Redlands on Saturday.

Only opener Hayden Whyte showed any resistance as the experienced opening duo of Stuart Sweatman (5-34) and Steve Forshaw (3-8), and Simon Sweatman (2-3) swept through the home side in just 18 overs.

Stuart Sweatman then hit a quickfire 34 to put his side on the verge of victory which they achieved in just 5.4 overs.

County Division Two CATTISTOCK 190-9 BEAT CRANBORNE 167 ALL OUT BY 23 RUNS

CATTISTOCK won an entertaining match in beating Cranborne, although they had to thank Martin Langford (4-27) to turn it their way in his second spell.

Chasing 191 the visitors were 123-2 with 25 overs gone, but the returning Langford took 4-7 in three overs to leave them 135-5 and with Billy Walbridge picking up 3-32, Cattistock eased home by 23 runs.

Winning the toss, Cattistock lost Langford with eight on the board, but stands of 48 between Sam Baker (49) and Jon Legg (28) and Baker and Walbridge (36m) saw them 106-3.

But like Cranborne, they also had a mid-order collapse that saw them 153-7, but an eighth wicket stand of 23 between Jack Walklett (21no) and Bradley Damen (10) saw them post a respectable target of 190-9 which in the end proved decisive.

County Division Three STALBRIDGE 2ND 129-8 BEAT BEAMINSTER 128 ALL OUT BY 2 WICKETS

HOSTS Stalbridge 2nds edged a low scoring contest against Beaminster in a rain affected game.

Having won the toss, Beaminster started well with openers Rich Runyard (43) and Hugh Rathbone (39) sharing an opening stand of 74.

But after heavy rain, Runyard's dismissal triggered a collapse as batting conditions deteriorated.

The wicket kept very low and deliveries skidded through which led to several cheap dismissals as the remaining nine wickets were lost for just 54 runs and Beaminster were bowled out for 128 in the 39th over.

In reply, Stalbridge struggled against Baker (2-31) and Everitt (1-15) who bowled with good pace and determination as they applied pressure early in the innings losing three wickets for just 14 runs.

But crucially, catches were again spilled to relieve pressure as Stalbridge staged a recovery through Max Nettleby who scored 61.

Ade Phillips bowled a superb spell of 3-16 to apply pressure, but after further rain delays the ball became increasingly wet and difficult to control.

Beaminster continued to battle but were powerless to prevent Matt Chant's 35 helping Stalbridge from reaching their target in the 29th over, their seventh win in their last eight games.

STURMINSTER MARSHALL 177-9 BEAT DORCHESTER 2ND 47 ALL OUT BY 130 RUNS

DORCHESTER 2nds suffered an unexpected reverse when they were wll beaten at Sturminster Marshall.

Batting first opener Simon Gardner scored a half century for the hosts, and with useful contributions from Ross Humphrey (29) and Will Gage (34no) they accumulated 177-9 despite 4-18 from Mike Peake and 3-33 from Josh Foot.

Dorchester never got to grips in reply with only Foot (17) getting into double figures as Henry Lockwood tore through their defences with 5-5 from five overs.

WAREHAM 118 ALL OUT LOST TO WEYMOUTH 119-4 BY 6 WICKETS

A SUPERB piece of bowling from Ryan Sers saw Weymouth 2nds record just their second victory of the season and leapfrog their opponents at the bottom of the table.

Sers struck after the hosts had reached 70-1 by removing top score Martin Upshall for 46, and then mopped up another four victims to record a "fifer" with 5-26 from nine overs.

Tom Chedzoy then helped him skittle out the tail with 4-9 from just 16 balls; S Axon (22) and Reece Whitty (24no) the only batsmen able to resist.

In reply Weymouth started in similar fashion with Tony Quayle (51) and Andy Jarvis (24) putting on 64 for the first wicket, and although Dominic Webb (4) went cheaply there was no capitulation as Quayle and Paul Webb (21no) took them within touching distance before winning by six wickets.

County Division Five

CERNE VALLEY 2ND 153 ALL OUT LOST TO CHARLTON DOWN 301-6 BY 148 RUNS

THIS comprehensive victory was set up by a fantastic batting display from centurion Jae Miller and 89 from Kim Park.

Nick Voss and Miller had to play cautiously against the accurate opening bowling attack of Chris Smith and Craig Kellaway and could only muster 38-0 after ten overs.

However the surged as Miller launched into the change bowling finding the boundary with regularity as Voss farmed the strike to unleash Miller.

The pair put on 76 before Voss (16) was lbw to Tom Best (2-54). Sam Roles and Matt Stevens soon followed to leave the visitors on 93-3.

This brought Park to the wicket and their partnership of 79 pushed the game beyond Cerne Valley.

Miller batted superbly to reach his century in only 88 balls including 12 fours and seven 6s, jumping on any ball which was short of a length or over pitched, before being bowled by young leg spinner Ben Simpson for an impressive 117.

Not to be over shadowed Park took over the run fest, his 89 coming in only 65 balls and included some lovely cover drives and excellent running between the wickets.

Javed Gill(19) and Rob Rutter(19) both played supportive cameo innings to push the score pass the 300 mark before Park was run out off the last ball of the innings.

Cerne Valley's reply was very solid with Tom Downey(15) and Craig Kellaway(22) playing each ball on its merits against the young bowling attack of Matt and Dan Stevens, and it was the latter who had Downey brilliantly caught one handed by Rutter at deep gully with the score on 31-1.

The change of bowling saw Roles(3-43) strike twice in two balls and 51-3 soon became 75-5 when Javed Gill also struck twice removing the dangerous Kellaway well caught by Miller at mid on, and then bowling Tom Mercier. Gill also struck twice in his last over to return excellent bowling figures of 4-34.

Simon Green (29) decided the best form of defence was attack and produced some classical cover drives and pull shots before being well caught by the diving Miller.

Mark Homewood, making his Saturday debut bowled beautifully and his line outside off stump tempted Dave Baney and Park took another sharp catch in the slips, and Tom Hughes became his second victim as he was caught by Miller with the score on 119-9.

Best (16) opened his shoulders in his cameo innings to gain valuable batting points including two fours and a massive six to the mid wicket boundary and with young Matthew Webb added 34 for the last wicket.

Captain Pete Tucker said "We batted well and it was great to see Nick Voss settling into his opening bat position, looking technically correct and growing in confidence to record his first century of the season.

"Kim Park produced his best innings for the Saturday team and controlled the middle and tail end of the innings with classical stroke play and exceptional running between the wickets."

MARTINSTOWN 2ND 217-7 BEAT PORTLAND 2ND 206-8 BY 11 RUNS

A SUPERB 89 from Jack James was the key to Martinstown 2nds victory over Portland 2nds.

With useful contributions from Adam Kepple and Rob O'Brien, the hosts reached 217-7 in their allotted overs.

Wickets were shared around as Portland came close to snatching victory, but they fell 11 runs short.

Sunday Division Three DORSET INDIANS 215-5 BEAT SYMENE 214-4 BY 5 WICKETS

A CENTURY from Jon Legg couldn't prevent Symene from falling to Dorset Indians at Poole in an excellent game of cricket.

Winning the toss on what looked like a green wicket - but in fact was hard and bouncy - they quickly lost Nick Skyrme (2) but Legg with support from Phil Hawkins (21) and Liam Toohill (27) compiled a superb 100 before being caught with the score on 186-4.

Ollie Lee (26no) and Bradley Damen (18no) took the total to 214 at the end of their allotted 40 overs.

Shanthan (29) and Adnan Butt (21) put on 50 for the first wicket in reply, but Damen (1-34), young Luke Robertson (1-34) and Legg (3-10) with his off-spinners from eight overs reduced the Indians to 108-5.

However Sunny Choudry (81no) and Jignesh (25no) took the hosts to victory with an unbeaten century partnership with six overs left.

Readers Mid-Wessex League Division One

BROADWINDSOR 193-5 BEAT CRANMORE 187 ALL OUT IN an exciting game that went to the wire, Broadwindsor got back to winning ways with victory over league leaders Cranmore.

Runs were shared around between all the batsmen with Richie Runyard top scoring with 45 not out, but solid contributions from Dean Hyett (35), Steve Phillips (23), Chris Park (21) and Jack Walklett (20) saw the host total 193-5.

Opening bowler Ross Baker was in fine form with the ball, taking 3-10 off eight overs including four maidens.

Although up with the run rate, wickets fell regularly and there was a scare near the end when the opposition's No9 opened up with two 4s and a big six in a quickfire 20.

But Jack Walklett quelled their enthusiasm with 4-32 at the end of the innings.

Browne too quick!

◆ SLICK OPERATOR: Stuart Browne who recorded the fastest time on both days

CHARD'S Stuart Browne recorded the fastest time on both days of the Three Clubs Hill Climb held at Manor Farm, Charnmouth recently.

Driving his OMS SF2 he covered the slightly shortened course due to heavy overnight rain that failed to clear of water by the start of Saturday's practice in 23.44 seconds. He then returned a winning 26.57 over the full distance to win the event on Sunday.

Several other local drivers completed the double in their class including another Chard driver Mike Egan in Class G1 in his Leyland Mini, Colyton's George Koopman in his Honda Integra (A3), Simon Neve (Yeovil) who won Class A4 in his Mitsubishi Lancer Evo6 RS and Honiton resident David Gardner (Caterham 7) who won the B2 class.

Weymouth's Geoff Blake won Saturday's C4 practice in his Westfield SEiW, but it was Ben Wheeler from Kilmington in his Westfield that won the day on Sunday.

county cup successes

Earlier, League Chairman Jim Jowatt commented on the superb achievements of Netherbury (Dorset Junior), Crewkerne Town (Somerset Junior) and Barrington (Somerset Intermediate) who all lifted County trophies.

Sadly, a prolonged period of illness has forced long-serving vice-chairman Tony Turner to step down for the position. Mr Turner's successor is Beaminster FC chairman Dave Pearson who has been associated with the PSDL for 38 years.

Meanwhile, Barrington Secretary John Martin voiced his disappointment at the club's Reserve team being handed their Division Three League championship trophy at the first team's Arthur Gage Cup Final, he said "It was disrespectful to our Reserve team for it to be handed over at the first team's cup final.

Mr Martin said he would be standing down as a league Vice-President as a consequence. Mr Jowatt apologised on behalf of the league committee and urged Mr Martin to remain a VP, he said he would "think it over".

Mr Martin also requested the Honourarium payment to League officers be made more transparent with individual payments listed. Mr Jowatt agreed that this should be implemented.

The league officers were voted back in en-bloc with Fixtures Secretary Mark Brunt confirming that he would be standing down at the end of the 2015-16 season.

THE recent Perry Street & District League annual general meeting saw the return of Halstock and Fivehead Rangers to the member clubs. Halstock folded in the 1990's and will be managed by former player and ex-Misterton supremo Adge Diment.

The Fivehead team, which ended in it's old guise back in 2010, will be made up of players based in and around the Ilminster area.

In addition, reserve teams from Netherbury and Perry Street, after a short absence, were also voted back in.

So four in, but three out as Millwey Rise first and reserves teams and Lyme Regis Reserves head off to the Devon & Exeter League.

This left a total of 52 teams and, after many clubs complained of a lack of games in the 10-team five divisions last season, a vote was taken on the constitution of the league for the upcoming season. The result was a reduction to four divisions of 13-teams.

The awards section saw Mark Macey land the Referee-of-the-Year trophy with Farway United's Steve Loud retaining top linesman award for the third year in succession.

League Secretary Bob Brunt's selection as Secretary-of-the-Year went to Andy Fish who did a sterling job in difficult circumstances with the club's two remaining PSDL teams both finishing bottom of their respective divisions without a win between them.

One of those sides, the Colts (third team) were the recipients of the Fair Play award as voted for by the league referees.

Successful point-to-point season draws to a close

THE Wessex Point-to-Point Area's six main awards, sponsored by Spillers Horsefeeds, will be presented at the end of season party on Friday, July 3rd.

Leading gentleman rider is Somerset-based Will Biddick, who was also crowned National Champion for the fourth time at Saturday's Torrington Farmers meeting at Umberleigh, Devon, breaking the all time national record.

Biddick rode 68 winners this season, the majority provided by Henley, near Crewkerne, handler Jack Barber, 23, the country's leading trainer with 51 successes.

Both Jack and Will are runaway winners of two of the Wessex Area championships (Leading 10+ horses Trainer and Leading Gentleman Jockey respectively).

Quantocks-based trainer Teresa Clark takes the award for yards housing nine or fewer horses for the first time, with Chloe Newman and Keith Cummings hot on her heels. Teresa saddled eight winners in Wessex during the season, including a purple patch of five consecutive winners in May.

Leading Lady Rider is Alice Mills, who has just announced her retirement from point-to-point racing to take out a professional jump and flat licence to ride under Rules.

Harry Cobden (16) who landed three National championships - the Fuller's Brewery National Mens Novice Riders title, the Dodson & Horrell Wilkinson Sword (for leading male novice under 21 rider) and the Harley Racing National novice riders' race championship - scooped the remaining two Awards.

He wins the Wessex Leading Novice Rider Award and the Wessex Leading Owner Award, largely thanks to his partnership with his own prolific Cock Of The Rock, a 10yo gelding with five of his seven wins in Wessex.

Cock Of the Rock is trained by Mosterton's Rachael Green, who netted the Connolly's Red Mills sponsored national award for yards with seven or fewer horses.

Full details of the awards, plus those already presented at meetings during the season, can be found on the Wessex Area website - www.pointingwessex.co.uk - as can further information regarding the end of season party.
